CITIZENSHIP AND SOCIAL PROBLEMS

This thread considers the complex needs and demands of different societies. Students will evaluate the effectiveness of policies at remedying social problems, and to see the connections between policies that prioritize multicultural inclusion and the existence of a healthy civil society. Some courses will connect past policies and practices to the ongoing effects of racism, homophobia, misogyny, classism, and/or other inequalities in contemporary society.

Thread Outcomes:

- Students will be able to analyze the complex needs and demands of disparate societies. (UG 02)
- Students will engage in integrative learning across the curriculum and co-curriculum, making simple connections among ideas and experiences to synthesizing and transferring learning to new, complex situations within and beyond the campus. (UG 05)
- Students will engage in applied learning across the curriculum and co-curriculum, making simple connections among ideas and experiences to synthesizing and transferring learning to new, complex situations within and beyond the campus. (UG 02)

Important Curriculum Guide Notes

This Curriculum Guide is provided to help SRU students and prospective students better understand their intended major curriculum. Enrolled SRU students should note that the My Rock Audit may place already-earned and/or in progress courses in different, yet valid, curriculum categories. Enrolled SRU students should use the My Rock Audit Report and materials and information provided by their faculty advisers to ensure accurate progress towards degree completion. The information on this guide is current as of the date listed. Students are responsible for curriculum requirements at the time of enrollment at the University.
