

COMMUNICATIVE LANGUAGE TEACHING, CERTIFICATE

To access Certificate Requirements, please view the Curriculum Guide tab.

The Certificate in Communicative Language Teaching is designed to enhance students' knowledge of communicative language teaching (CLT) approaches to working with English learners in both domestic and global contexts. The Certificate will enable students to acquire specialized CLT certification for enhancing their students' communicative competence in English, given the socio-cultural and international contexts in which the language serves as a lingua franca. The Certificate courses may be offered at the 500-level or 600-level, as is appropriate, respectively, for teachers of English as a new language who are in training or already in service.

Important Curriculum Guide Notes

This Curriculum Guide is provided to help SRU students and prospective students better understand their intended major curriculum. Enrolled

SRU students should note that the My Rock Audit may place already-earned and/or in progress courses in different, yet valid, curriculum categories. Enrolled SRU students should use the My Rock Audit Report and materials and information provided by their faculty advisers to ensure accurate progress towards degree completion. The information on this guide is current as of the date listed. Students are responsible for curriculum requirements at the time of enrollment at the University.
